ADEA is a boutique winery focusing on production of wines of the north Willamette Valley's acclaimed terroir. Production is limited to fewer than 2,500 cases.

Our focus is to produce superior Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. Blending fruits from premium vineyards to vary the soils, elevations, clones and micro-climates is essential to creating wines that express what the Willamette Valley has to offer.

Barrels are tasted and blended to specifically fit to the Dean-o's, AnnSigrid and Willamette Valley blends after the single vineyard bottlings. "Nicely focused, with vivid cherry and currant flavors at the core, shaded with spicy, peppery notes that keep it lively as the flavors linger on the bright, fine-grained finish" "Smooth, ripe and supple, a fleshy wine without excessive weight, beautifully formed to show off its blackberry, plum and smokey spice flavors which echo invitingly."
